

How to Register for the Google-powered K: Drive

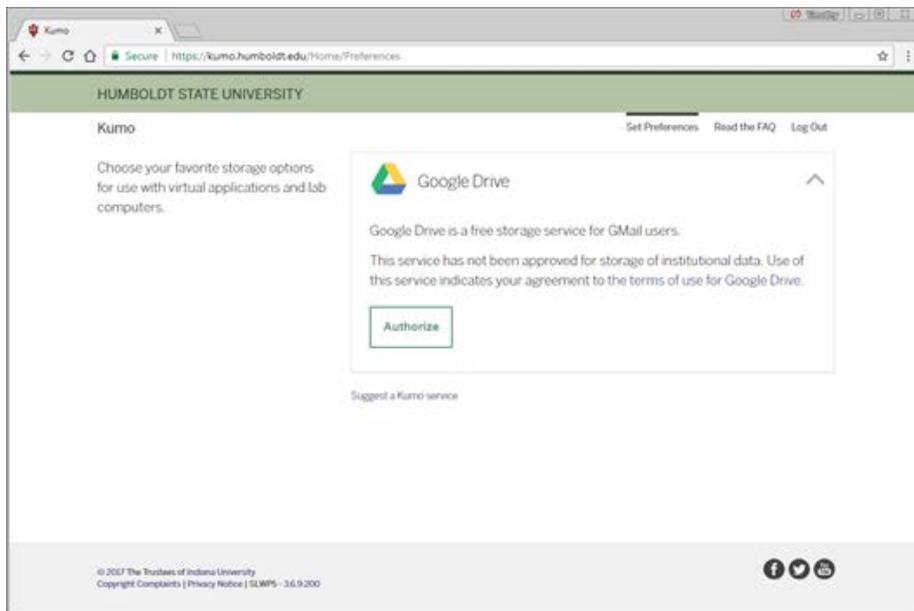

Once you register (by following the instructions below) you will have access to your Google drive from all instructional spaces on campus, thanks to a program called Kumo.

To register, go to <https://Kumo.humboldt.edu>

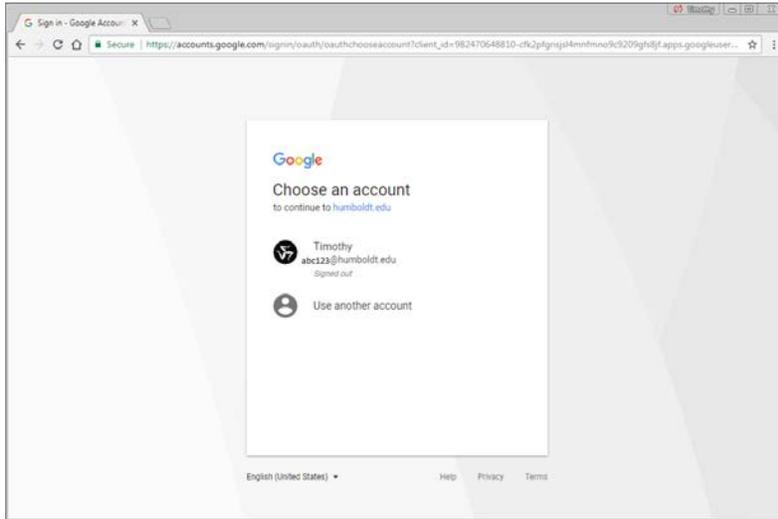

The screenshot shows the Kumo website homepage. At the top, there is a green header with "HUMBOLDT STATE UNIVERSITY". Below the header, the word "Kumo" is displayed in a large font, with "Cloud Storage Integration" underneath. A paragraph of text reads: "Link your preferred storage and have on-the-go access to your files from campus computers and apps." To the right of this text is a green "Log In" button. Further right, there is a section titled "Easily work with your files in..." which features the Google Drive logo and the text "Google Drive". Below this, there is a section titled "Forget flash drives" with a paragraph explaining that Kumo is easy to set up and simple to use, allowing users to authorize their storage accounts and access them as if they were local hard drives.

1. Select Google Drive and click Authorize

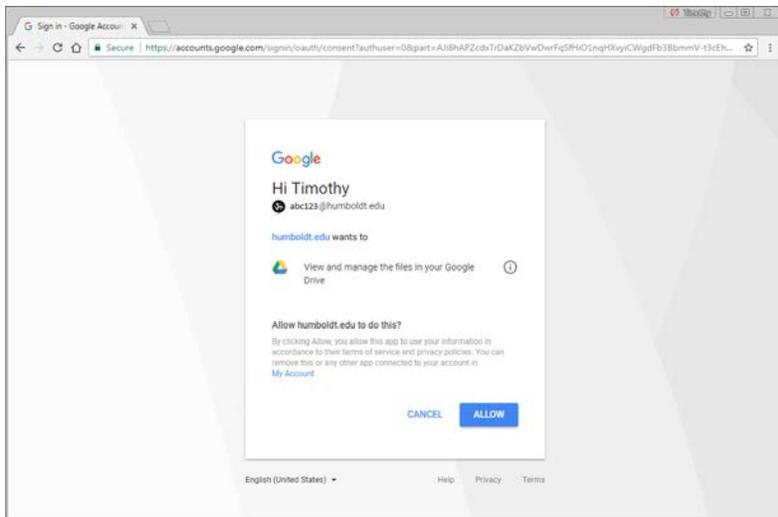

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Kumo website. The browser's address bar shows the URL "https://kumo.humboldt.edu/Home/Preferences". The website header includes "HUMBOLDT STATE UNIVERSITY" and navigation links for "Set Preferences", "Read the FAQ", and "Log Out". The main content area is titled "Kumo" and contains the text "Choose your favorite storage options for use with virtual applications and lab computers." A large box for "Google Drive" is prominently displayed, featuring the Google Drive logo and the text: "Google Drive is a free storage service for Gmail users. This service has not been approved for storage of institutional data. Use of this service indicates your agreement to the terms of use for Google Drive." Below this text is a green "Authorize" button. At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with copyright information: "© 2017 The Trustees of Indiana University Copyright Complaints | Privacy Notice | SLWPS - 3.6.9.200" and social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube.

2. If asked, select your HSU email account

3. Click ALLOW to authorize Kumo to link to your Google Drive.

4. Congratulations! You have successfully linked Kumo to Google. You should see the K: drive.
